

Annual Meeting

Half Hollow Hills Active Retired Teachers

Thursday, May 28th

Half Hollow Hills Library, the Melville Branch
510 Sweet Hollow Rd., Melville, NY 11747 (631) 421-4535
10:00 A.M – 12 Noon

Come join us for our annual HHHART meeting. This year we will formalize the election of the Board (those running for positions were uncontested). Concluding the short business portion of our meeting, your Board has prepared an enjoyable, informative morning. This year's guest speakers include a representative from the John Engeman Theatre, Mel Stern, and Joan Perrini.

- The John W. Engeman Theatre in Northport is Long Island's only year-round professional theater, casting its actors directly from the Broadway talent pool.
- Joan Perrini is the new Retiree Service Consultant for NYSUT Suffolk.
- Mel Stern is the president of RC 20 and our go-to person for political action info.

The hospitality committee has some raffles planned with a chance to win a seat at our Fall Luncheon.

This is a great opportunity to gather information, socialize with colleagues, and meet your new Executive Board. Come have your morning coffee with us!
