

--- The President's Message ---

I'm sure you have all heard the claim that public employees' pensions are bankrupting states, including New York. The recent exposé of school Superintendents' salaries and retirement packages did nothing to help the situation. As you know, our state pension systems are well run and cost effective. Because of that, the current employer contribution rate is among the lowest of all 50 states. After 6 consecutive years in which the school districts' contribution rate was less than 2% of payroll and in which there were few critics of public pensions, the cost has increased because of economic changes beyond anyone's control. The cost would be much higher if the plan did not operate so efficiently or invest so successfully. Many teachers consider their pensions as a benefit in lieu of salary. Statewide median salaries for teachers are still less than what other professionals with a Master's degree and 20 years of experience earn in the private sector. The pension system helps promote teaching as a career. And as NYS residents, we all contribute to public pensions!

Teacher layoffs are happening everywhere. Even HHH has notified about 14 teachers of this impending action. And now, in response to NYC, Albany has passed a Seniority Bill which targets NYC teachers. This eliminates the LIFO seniority laws (Last In First Out). This law has implications for the entire state. Mel refers to this as "a line in the sand to us". We fought long and hard to gain this right and we will not lose it.

Social Security remains under attack. A new technique for those congressmen seeking to cut back on those benefits, as well as Medicaid and Medicare, is the news that they have cut $1.7 billion from the SS administration fund. This means closing SS offices, firing employees who run the system and reducing all costs to administer it. All services would be slowed down and delayed including benefit checks for all recipients.

And then there is the situation in Wisconsin. Eliminating public employees' collective bargaining rights strikes at the heart of the unions. Some of you may remember when we did not have those rights or any others and had to plead for any improvements in our working conditions and for our students. Have you seen this Wisconsin tweet? "If u live in Wisconsin, don't forget to set your clock back 50 years this weekend". How true. Those people are to be commended for their persistence and dedication in fighting for their rights. After their Governor Walker and a handful of Republican senators circumvented the law and passed the bill busting their public worker unions you might have expected that the protesters would have packed up and gone home. But not those folks. 85,000 to 100,000 amassed in the capitol in a completely peaceful demonstration, joined by 50 farmers on tractors, to begin the process of redress. This will take the form of legal challenges to the vote on the bill and recall for the 16 senators involved. Gov. Walker's turn will not come up until next January when he has been in office for 12 months.

Twelve other states have similar legislation pending or proposed.

So what can you do about all this? If you've never participated in social action, or political action, now is the time to start. We are not only working for our own benefits, but for all the current teachers and those to come, and for all the children who will be affected in our schools. Call or write or fax your state representatives and the governor. Write letters to the newspapers. Attend the many rallies that are being held all over the state. Sign on-line petitions. Or send a contribution to: Wisconsin AFT, 6602 Normandy Lane, Madison, WI 53714 Attention: Elaine. Make the check out to Solidarity Fund. Thanks for your help!

Many of our younger retirees get confused with how their medical coverage is affected once they become Medicare eligible. I've even heard some long time retirees asking why they receive a check from the District twice a year. To try to explain how Medicare coverage works with your NYSHIP (Empire) coverage, Barry Corbett has developed an easy to understand fact sheet on the subject:

Medicare Part A ---- covers Hospital Charges

All members of the US workforce pay for Medicare Part A throughout their careers. They are automatically enrolled by the Government upon attainment of age 65 regardless of employment status.

Medicare Part B----covers Medical Charges (Doctor/Surgeons)

NYSHIP (New York State Health Insurance Program) requires ALL enrollees who are retired and attain age 65 to enroll in Medicare Part B.

Here is how it usually works – after you are retired and on Medicare--you go to the doctor for a physical – he sends the bill to Medicare – they usually pay about 80%. Medicare then sends it to United Healthcare – they pay the difference. United Healthcare then sends you an EOB (explanation of benefits) showing what Medicare paid, what they paid, and what you owe – usually a $20 Co Pay to the Dr's office.

Medicare Part B is not free – the Government (Social Security Administration) charges $96.40 – $110.50 per month (referred to as the base amount).

If you are collecting Social Security benefits the charge will come directly out of your monthly allotment, If not, they will bill you directly.

Since NYSHIP requires that you and /or your spouse enroll in Medicare Part B, they require the district to reimburse you for the cost. Our district reimburses our retirees for the base amount on a semiannual basis – once in January and once in July.

At the end of the calendar year, the Social Security Administration sends out an SSA 1099.

This document reflects the amount of SS payments remitted to you and the total amount of Medicare Part B Premiums that were deducted. Any amount of Med B premiums charged above the base amount and not reimbursed by the district will be reimbursed in a third check upon receipt by the district of a copy of the enrollee and/or enrollee's spouse's SSA 1099.

Hopefully this explanation helps you better understand the complexities of healthcare coverage once you and your spouse or significant other* becomes Medicare eligible.

*As of July 1, 2010, the District provides health coverage for significant other and same sex relationships. To apply for such coverage call Barry Corbett at 631-592-3094 for further information and an application. Be sure to consult with your tax advisor and discuss the taxation relative to adding a same sex partner through marriage or domestic partnership.

Input / Output

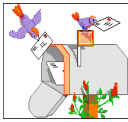

At this time when teachers and other public employees and the unions that represent them are being assailed as the cause of dire fiscal shortfalls, we want to say that those that place the blame there are misdirected.

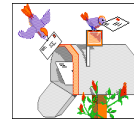

We want to thank our union for fighting for our rights while we were working and as retirees.

We want the rights of those still teaching to be protected.

Ted and I spent the summer in NYC. We went on a Danube River Cruise. We have roamed the world- Alaska, South America, the Mediterranean, the Caribbean and much of the United States. Retirement is wonderful, but exhausting. Miss you all. Gracine Ehrlich Dunn

Love hearing about everyone in the newsletter. I am looking forward to my cruise from Budapest to Amsterdam in the fall (2010) Dat Capuro
(Ed. note Hope it was great)

I am really having fun in Delray Beach and playing lots of tennis. If you enjoy tennis or golf, this is a great place to be. In addition, Delray closes streets once a month and puts a band on every other block so that people can dance in the streets. I live one mile from the beach, which is really beautiful. If you want to move to Florida, you must check out Delray Beach. Cathy Ouyianos

Have been traveling the world- all continents. Enjoying the people and the sights. Richard P. Furrisi

We love our retirement with six months in Florida. Our family is all about us and we are enjoying good health. We are so grateful for a wonderful life. Ours is a great school district. Carmela Basilice

Hello to everyone! I continue to enjoy my retirement, with my family and friends. Our time is divided between Oceanside with our boat, Woodloch Pines, PA, where we enjoy the woodland setting, and days at our home in Southampton. We enjoy the music at the Met. We have six grandchildren in our neighborhood. I haven't yet had time to wonder what to do. We are well and wish you all good health. Robert Peterson

There's nothing better than waking up to sunlight, almost every day of the year, or watching the sun rise if you're coming home late with Bill Walters. (Richard lives in Honolulu.) Richard Tom

A big HELLO to my friends at HHH. I'm still there doing my speech thing, Fred Gewirtz

Fantastic job! Love the color photos. Thanks.

On March 5, 2010 Tom and I became Grandparents. Our daughter Carolyn Gillen Hall (HSE '95) gave birth to Charlotte. Mom and baby and grandparents are all doing GREAT.

Maureen Gillen

This is my last year teaching Physics at St. Anthony's. My wife Glenda retired from Smithtown School District after 40 years.

Alfred E. Smith

John and I recently celebrated our 50th anniversary. Our wonderful sons sent us on a cruise to celebrate this great event.

Dorothy Guarino

I sold my house in Syosset, and am presently living in a new apartment in Great Neck.

Arline Wieder

Robert (retired teacher, Lynbrook) and I welcomed our first born grandson, Donovan Robert, born to parents Jeremy and Kate of Southport, Ct, on November 2, 2009.

Nancy Joyce

Ed and I spent most of last summer back and forth visiting Pennsylvania, Colorado, Vermont, and New Jersey for family events including graduations, confirmations and good-old gatherings. Our oldest grandchild, Ross, is a freshman at NYU, and our youngest, Miles, is 2. We have had lots of fun times.

Marlene Flanagan

Still playing golf only on days ending with "y." Moved to Northern Florida because the pine trees and close proximity to the ocean are reminiscent of "The Island." Cruised from Santiago, Chile to San Francisco, then Venice to the Greek Islands and Rome in the past two years. So much to see! Don't many of us who travel sometimes wish we still had a classroom full of kids with whom to share the wonder we find in this world? Thanks to Joan, et al, who keep HHHART up and running. Diane Huber

I'm starting my tenth year as an Adjunct Professor at C.W. Post, where I am teaching Methods and Activity courses to future Physical Education Teachers. I feel like I am giving back to our profession. It's very rewarding.

Ileene and I have been on great trips to Alaska, Israel, Egypt, Greece, and Turkey. We also continue to go west to ski in Colorado, Utah, and California.

Most importantly, we have a beautiful granddaughter, Melanie Brooke. Our son, Adam (a Guidance Counselor at West Hollow) and his wife, Gina (a NYC elementary school teacher) are the proud parents.

Our daughter, Erica, is also a successful NYC elementary school teacher. Our family is very proud of our educational heritage. We are blessed.

Irwin Handburger

We now have nine grandchildren. We went to the Holy Land in December. Ed was ordained a deacon in the Roman Catholic Church in May, 2010.

Laura and Ed Digneaux

All is well. Wife Jane joins me in retirement in 2013. Sons Parker and Cooper (in elementary school) are doing well. Our five grandkids are all great. Jane and I celebrated 29 years together, after meeting at West Hollow.

Milt Schoch

Loving every minute of retirement – oil painting and selling them, traveling, and spending lots of time in NYC going to theatre and museums. Proud of my grandson. He is Phi Beta Kappa at Binghamton. Jerry is still working – CPAs never retire. He has cut down his hours. Living closer to the city and having no house chores makes life more fun. Went to Paris and Normandy in October with friends. Life is beautiful!

Arlene Dorfman

Good news.... reached my 80th birthday in fine health. Had a great celebration with family at Montauk, NY, where I spend a good deal of the summer.

Josephine Leibfried

Since retiring from Hills West in 2005, I have been the Director of Guidance at Christ the King High School in Middle Village. I'm hoping for a second, more permanent retirement soon.

John Macpherson

I'm expecting my third grandchild a boy this time! (ed: received in 2010)

Nancy Schoen

Our sixth grandchild was born in April. We have been enjoying grandparent duties. Traveled to Paris and Normandy. Quite an experience. We will be taking three granddaughters to Italy this summer. Wish us luck!

Alida McGuire (Schubert)

Like Rip Van Winkle, who lived close to the area I grew up in, time seems to have worked its magic on me. Having retired in 1998, I became heavily involved in civic affairs until my bride (of 48 years) and I left Long Island and adopted a new home in Roswell, Georgia.

Between traveling several times to Europe, and immersing myself in the weekly affairs of three of my grandchildren in Roswell proper, I seem to have woven a cocoon around myself, and Happy Hollow slowly faded into the background of my conscious memory. Not good! Turning one's back on HHHART is not a good thing.... It isn't my intention to cut myself off from old friends and colleagues....

We have enjoyed our decision to move to Roswell two years ago last June, and the days and weeks quickly fly by. As "Damn Yankees", we have been accepted by the many transplants from throughout the south who occupy our subdivision. Judy is immersed in her book group and lunch bunch while I have engaged in reading even more books than ever, being active as an officer in my association, attending numerous political forums at Georgia Tech in the Sam Nunn School of Foreign Affairs. We are pleased with the easy availability of High Museum, the famous Fox Theatre, our local theaters in Roswell and in Marietta for plays and the symphony. All in all, it has been a wonderful retirement adventure thus far.

One small glitch: Judy recently had to undergo surgery, and is currently receiving radiation treatment in the aftermath of her surgery. The medical establishment in the Atlanta area, and specifically in Roswell, has been world-class, and for that, we are thankful. Last year, I underwent surgery for a rotator cuff, and my surgeon was a former naval flight surgeon who grew up in Manhasset. Our world continues to shrink, and thus far, in our favor.

I hope that all is well with my former friends and colleagues who remain on Long Island. Best wishes.... to everyone in the HHHART; their work is much appreciated by all the chapter members south of the Mason-Dixon line.

Know Your HHHART Board

Our Board interviewee for this issue is Marilyn (Honey) Kellman.

Everyone knows 'Marilyn' as Honey and she is a honey. She was brought up in Brooklyn, went to Lafayette High School, and graduated from Oswego. After graduation 3 "Oswego Gals" took a car trip cross country. It was such fun for them seeing the U.S.A. that way in spite of no air conditioning in the car and water bags in front to cool the radiator. This fostered a love for traveling and the following summer they were off to tour several European cities and countries. Honey and Hal continued to travel with their family.

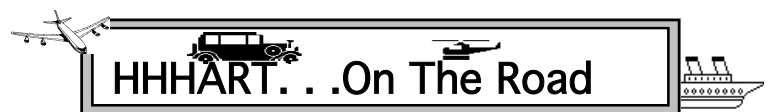

Honey's first teaching assignment was in Uniondale. She left to start her family. She has two children, her daughter, Carolyn, who is an attorney and her son, Michael, who is CFO of the ADL. She has two grandchildren, Alex and Emily, who are the loves of her life.

When she returned to continue her teaching career, it was at the "famed HHH School District", first at Manasquan and then on to Vanderbilt where she met Ruth Steinberg and others who are her closest friends – her support system as she says. When Honey retired, Ruth encouraged her to join many, many activities and to do many of the things she has enjoyed these past years.

Since she retired, her life has changed. Her husband, Hal, has Parkinson's disease and at this time, is confined to a wheel chair. The past few years have brought many challenging situations for her. Her motto continues to be "Keep Smiling". She enjoys weekly Mah Jongg games, lunch with the ladies, theater and movies with Hal when possible. She is a staunch tennis and METS fan.

She loves being a HHHART board member, planning some of our luncheons with Helen Chipkin, and working with others on various projects. And we love working with her.

I finally made my trip of a lifetime- EGYPT! I was blown away by the Great Pyramids, the temples, the history. (I really was there in a past life). Standing wide-eyed before Ramses II at Abu Simbel was a moment never to be forgotten. And to think-they moved the entire temple hundreds of feet up from where it was originally built to save it from the waters of the Aswan Dam.

Then I continued on to Petra, Jordan, for another not-to-be missed experience. Remember Harrison Ford in "Raiders of the Lost Ark".... riding through a canyon deeply cut into the rock.... and coming out in front of a spectacular temple carved into the stone of the mountain? Well, that's the entrance to Petra, and the rest of it (over five miles of houses, temples, etc) is equally awesome. Archeologists say there is so much more they have yet to excavate. Put it on your "bucket list", for sure.

AND – fellow travelers plan a trip for 2020. I'm referring to the Passion Play presented only every ten years in the lovely little Bavarian village of Oberammergau, Germany. The villagers (all amateurs) have been doing this play since the 16th century when they made a pledge to God to thank him by performing this play reenacting Christ's Passion every ten years IF He would prevent the Black Plague from decimating the town. God heard their prayer, the plague passed by, and the village has honored its promise ever since. The play (7 1/2 hours long) was wonderful: moving, inspiring, sacred, and full of genuine feeling from the cast (all of whom have to be residents of Oberammergau for at least 20 years) Another part of our wonderful world to see.

Alice Oeywoda

In 2009, I traveled throughout northern/southern Spain/Portugal for 29 days. What a spectacular trip, with wonderful food and wine. The people were just lovely.

The difference in the Spanish architecture, culture etc. was very interesting, because of the years the Moors invaded and settled in the southern area. I was quite surprised that the small city of San Sebastian had Michelin 3 star restaurants. I did go to one of them – a once in a lifetime experience. The food was fantastic in taste and in presentation, and I was able to meet the chef/owner.

In March, Dr. Oz had a show on the fastest growing cancer in women, thyroid cancer. It was a very interesting program and he mentioned that the increase could possibly be related to the use of dental x-rays and mammograms. He demonstrated that on the apron the dentist puts on you for your dental x-rays there is a little flap that can be lifted up and wrapped around your neck. Many dentists don't bother to use it. Also, there is something called a "thyroid guard" for use during mammograms. By coincidence, I had my yearly mammogram yesterday. I felt a little silly, but I asked about the guard and, sure enough, the technician had one in a drawer. I asked why it wasn't routinely used. Answer: "I don't know. You have to ask for it." Well, if I hadn't seen the show, how would I have known to ask?

As most of you know, last year was the premier year for our very own HHHART website. If you haven't visited it, please do so. Lots of valuable, pertinent info is posted there. Part of the website features a BLOG hosted by Joan Petroske. You might put the website address in your favorites and visit it often.(www.hhhart.net) Betty Oolpe

There were so many impressive sights on the trip, but the most unique was the Mesquita, in Cordoba, – an eighth century mosque with a sixteenth century cathedral within it. Standing in the same palace in Barcelona where Columbus stood to solicit Queen Isabella's backing to fund a route to the East, by sailing west, was thrilling. I was astonished to see the size of the area of Fatima, Portugal, which is bigger than St. Peter's Square in Vatican City.

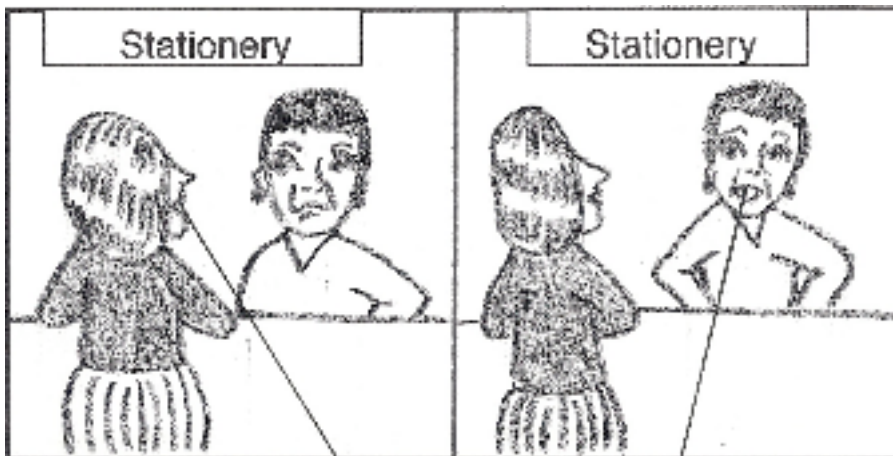

In the fall of 2009, I participated in a Women's Outdoor Adventure. It was so much fun: archery, kayaking, learning how to cook, games, camping skills, wildlife ID, tree ID, team building thru 34 foot rock-wall climbing, walking a 20 foot log that was 18 feet above the ground. My legs were shaking so much that I was bouncing. There were other activities to choose from to suit a variety of interests. Joan Oanceek (Joan sent us other trip information, which we will include in a future issue.)

Where Are They Now?

In recent years, I have run into a number of past Half Hollow students, and one in particular, was the brightest student I ever had. My Judy and I recently had dinner with Dr. Nancy Newman (Edna Newman's daughter), who is an internationally recognized neuro-ophthalmologist and associated with Emory University Hospital. Dr. Nancy travels throughout the world teaching the specifics of her medical craft to other physicians. Tony Cuzzucoli

Do you have Mah Jongg Cards?

Is that for a Jewish Holiday?

Legal questions have a way of piling up...

Maybe it's time to consider enrolling in the Legal Service Plan!

Stuff happens. You may be facing a speeding ticket, a house closing, a divorce, identity theft, elderly parent issues, and the list can go on and on. In today's world, at some point, you'll most likely need the advice or services of an attorney.

When that time comes, you can turn to the Legal Service Plan endorsed by NYSUT Member Benefits Trust.

When you enroll in the plan, you'll receive a multitude of benefits for personal legal matters. Anytime you wish to talk with an attorney, whether for advice or consultation, you have toll-free access weekdays during normal business hours. There's even a toll-free hotline for emergencies occurring beyond these hours.

You'll receive two, hour-long office consultations with a plan attorney, legal document review and legal letters written on your behalf.

If a problem can't be resolved by letter or phone, you'll be referred to a plan attorney. Referral attorneys are located throughout the continental US and charge plan members $200 an hour or 40 percent less than their standard hourly rate, whichever is lower.

Many personal legal matters have fees that are capped, and there are guaranteed discounts on probate fees and personal injury cases.

Also included is a Legal Security Package each year of plan enrollment. This package includes forms to request a:

For information about contractual endorsement arrangements with providers of endorsed programs, please contact NYSUT Member Benefits or refer to your NYSUT Member Benefits Trust Summary Plan Description.

Agency fee payers to NYSUT are eligible to participate in NYSUT Member Benefits-endorsed programs.

- Simple will - allows you to select a guardian for your children and beneficiaries of your estate. Without a will in place, the state makes these decisions. A will also speeds up the probate process and makes settling your estate much easier.

- Power of attorney - allows you to give another person the right to sign your name and transact your financial affairs.

- Living will - enables you to express your wishes regarding end-of-life treatment.

- Health care proxy - allows you to appoint someone to make medical decisions on your behalf if you are unable to make them yourself; it also contains directions regarding organ donation.

The plan offers advice and guidance with identity theft issues, debt consolidation and mortgage foreclosure.

You can purchase an Elder Law rider to help you in your health and estate planning as well as assisting you with these issues for your parents and grandparents.

If you have a business of your own, for example, a rental income property, you can purchase the Business Protection rider to obtain business legal services.

To find out more, call Member Benefits at 800-626-8101. Or go to www.memberbenefits.nysut.org to view or print a brochure and enrollment form. You can also enroll online.

continues. COPE

$25 or more suggested.

Vote-Cope helps strengthen political action at all levels. The single largest expenditure is rebates to locals for their own communities for support with school budget votes and local campaigns. Funds also go toward political action expenses. NYSUT and Vote-Cope are non-partisan and intend to remain non-partisan providing funds to pro-education and pro-labor candidates of all parties. Issues matter, not party.

Please send a check made out to Vote-Cope to the TA Office or you may opt to use the convenient NYSUT automatic pension deduction. (Contact NYSUT if you are interested) The 2011 Vote-Cope drive began in January and ends in December.
